What Will Be Your
LifeMark?

YEAR-END GIVING

Why do Jesus' disciples have generous hearts? God's grace is the ultimate example because He gave us Jesus as Savior and Lord. Because Jesus' disciples are the image bearers of a generous and gracious God our giving reflects the very nature of God. His grace to us compels us to give to His work. (2 Corinthians 9:7).

Year-end gifts are a perfect time to give generously to LifeMark to accomplish God's mission for us. Visit our web site today and click the donate button to give as an expression of God's grace given you. Thank you.

Aligned Ministry Spotlight

Operation Christmas Child delivers shoebox gifts to children in more than 100 countries, equipping local pastors and leaders to share the Gospel. Through outreach events and The Greatest Journey discipleship program, boys and girls come to faith, families are reached, churches grow, and communities are transformed by Christ's love. LifeMark is hoping to fill over 700 boxes this year. Be a part of this ministry.

BOOK REVIEW - ROB PINE

In preparing a podcast for the current study A Time of New Authority in the Lesson "Who is This?", a book by Steven Furtick, Sun Stand Still, God placed in my hand to share a real-life story of the connection of hope and faith in Jesus. Furtick relates the story of his grandfather's hope and faith as he cared for his wife of 50 years as she lost her mind and body to Alzheimer's disease over ten years. How could something like this work for God's good purpose? He ends this story this way: "Even though almost nothing good happened to him for the last decade of his life, I'm grateful that he stayed true to his belief that God is good. I'm grateful that he set a standard for marriage for me that I will not only live by and pass on to my boys, but also share with thousands of others in our own church and all across the world." This is a God-breathed book for your encouragement in who Jesus is.
